

SAVE THE DATE
FOR ONE OF THE MOST IMPORTANT THINGS YOU CAN DO FOR YOURSELF AND YOUR FAMILY

For parents of Elementary, Middle, and High School Students

North Salem Parent University

Wednesday, April 16, 2008

6:30 p.m. - 9:00 p.m.

North Salem Middle/High School Auditorium

230 June Road North Salem, New York

Sponsored by: The North Salem MS/HS PTO, Pequenakonck PTO
and North Salem School Administrators

Keynote Speaker

Ginger Katz, Founder & CEO of The Courage to Speak Foundation and author of Sunny's Story.

Saving lives by encouraging children to be drug free.

Ginger Katz shares her story of her son Ian who died of an accidental drug overdose. This real-life story encourages parents to address the problem of substance abuse and effectively communicate the dangers of drug use with their children.

www.CourageToSpeak.org

Series Workshops

~ Cyberbullying: Online harassment, communicating online:

Is it spiraling out of control?

Kenneth Citarella, Esq. and former ADA, Westchester County's
High Technology Crimes Unit

~ The Pressured Child: Helping your child find success and balance in school and life.

Dr. Michael Hibbard, North Salem Assistant Superintendent for Curriculum, Assessment, and Human Resources

~ Group Discussion with Ginger Katz - Keynote Speaker

For more information, contact:

